FEBRUARY

Quilting is a work of heart! Do you want to give a fairytale gift to a loved one? Now's the time to plan and make quilts for upcoming events including birthdays, graduations, and weddings, as most weddings take place between May and October. We have SO many fabrics in a rainbow of colors and a variety of prints, from modern to traditional and even season themes, there's sure to be something that will be just right for the occasion!

Finished is Better than Perfect.

Love, Jenny

This month, take 5!

5

MINUTES

Assess your fabric stash and quilting supplies. Then, jot down a couple notes about the projects you're working on right now, what's still left to be done, and what you need to make it happen!

HOURS

Take photos of the quilts you've made and tell their stories! Be sure to share them with us—we'd love to see them! Every quilt tells a story, so don't forget to write them down, even if it's just a couple of lines.

DAYS

If you haven't labeled your quilts yet, now's the time! Keep track of family history and label as many quilts as you can so that someone generations from now will know the story behind your quilts and feel your love across time! (We've got tips, tricks, and even preprinted panels of labels to make this easier!)

FEBRUARY

Track your sewing dates and plan your fun!
